Richard Vacher Detourniere, GM & CFO and Loic Hamon, SVP of Corporate Development will participate to the Barclays event at Westin New York Times Square on March 23-24, 2015

New-York, USA and Aix-en-Provence, France, March 23, 2015 – INSIDE Secure (Euronext Paris: INSD), a leader in embedded security solutions for mobile and connected devices, announced today that company executives will participate at the Barclays Emerging Payments Forum in New York City on March 23-24, 2015.

On Tuesday, March 24, Loic Hamon will talk about INSIDE Secure's views on the panel "Security Initiatives: Please!... No More Data Breaches" at 2:50 p.m. EDT at the Westin New York Times Square.

Leveraging over 20 years of experience to meet the evolving security and certification needs of the traditional and emerging payment markets like HCE mobile payments, INSIDE Secure owns the broadest security offering for payment technologies from smartcards to virtual payment cards for mobile devices.

"We are excited to be part of such a prestigious conference and to have the opportunity to share INSIDE's vision to fundamentally re-shape the industry's approach to security in response to today's Internet of Everything", said Loic Hamon, Senior Vice-President of Corporate Development for INSIDE Secure. "Billions of devices will have to be trusted. INSIDE Secure recognizes the world of security is changing and the time has come to enhance existing security models with a truly embedded model that delivers security at the heart of the device or application that needs to be secured."
